INTRODUCTION.

THE unparalleled ravages and desolations of the Rhenish Palatinate by the troops of Louis XIV. of France, and the religious persecution inflicted by her own Electors, drove many of the unfortunate Palatines to look about for a land where peace and freedom could be enjoyed. The first company of forty emigrants set out for America in 1708. Queen Anne, desiring to keep her own subjects at home, encouraged the movement, and many thousands followed, most of whom settled in Pennsylvania, attracted by the liberality of William Penn.

In 1717, Governor Keith, of the Province of Pennsylvania, fearing that the practice of importing Germans who dispersed themselves immediately after landing, without producing certificates to show who they were and whence they came, "might be of very dangerous consequence, since by the same method any number of foreigners from any nation whatever, enemies as well as friends, might throw themselves upon us," expressed his apprehensions to the Governing Board, and a measure was subsequently adopted requiring all male immigrants over sixteen years of age to qualify—i. e., take an oath of allegiance—immediately upon their arrival, or as soon thereafter as possible. They were marched to the court-house in a body, though in a few instances they were qualified at the official residence of the magistrate.

The form of the oath varied from time to time.* The earliest form declared allegiance to George the Second, professed abhorrence of the doctrine that princes excommunicated by the pope may lawfully be deposed or murdered, and declared that James the Pretender “hath not any right or title whatsoever to the crown of the realm of Great Britain.” Another form reads: “We, subscribers, natives, and late inhabitants of the Palatinate upon the Rhine and places adjacent, having transported ourselves and families into this Province of Pennsylvania, a colony subject to the crown of Great Britain, in hopes and expectation of finding a retreat and peaceable settlement therein, do solemnly promise and engage that we will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His present Majesty, King George the Second, and his successors, Kings of Great Britain, and will be faithful to the proprietor of this Province; and that we will demean ourselves peaceably to all His said Majesty’s subjects, and strictly observe and conform to the Laws of England and of this Province, to the utmost of our power and the best of our understanding." The lists of signatures, together with a memorandum of the vessel, the captain's name, and the port from which they sailed, being kept as official records, Governor Keith's jealousy of the Germans, though he afterwards espoused their cause heartily, has been the direct means of preserving the names of over thirty thousand German settlers in Pennsylvania, with details invaluable to the genealogist.

Governor Thomas said in 1738: "This Province has been for some years the asylum of the distressed Protestants of the Palatinate and other parts of Germany; and I believe it may truthfully be said that the present flourishing condition of it is in a great measure owing to the industry of those people."

The first person mentioned in history bearing our name, so far as we can learn, was one Lambert Schenkel, who, about the close of the sixteenth century, taught in France, Italy, and Germany, a system of mnemonics, which caused him to be denounced as a sorcerer by the University of Louvain. He published at Douai, in 1593, his treatise, De Memoria, with the sanction of that celebrated theological faculty. The most complete account of his system is contained in two works by his pupil, Martin Sommer, published in Venice in 1619.

Karl Friedrich Schinkel, architect, was born at Neuruppin, Prussia, March 13, 1781, and studied the principles of drawing and design at Berlin. In 1820, he was elected a professor at the Berlin Academy of Arts. He was one of the most original of modern German architects. Many public buildings in Berlin and Potsdam have been erected from his designs, which are remarkable for the unity of idea by which they are pervaded, and the vigor, beauty, and harmony of their details. He died October 9, 1841, and a biography by Kugler appeared at Berlin the following year.

Daniel Schenkel was born in Switzerland in 1813, studied theology at Basel and Göttingen, and became Professor of Theology, at Basel, in 1849, and at Heidelberg in 1851. He has written numerous works on theology: Christliche Dogmatik, Das Characterbild Jesu, Das Wesen des Protestantismus, and has edited Allgemeine Kirchliche Zeitschrift, Allgemeine Kirchenzeitung, and the well-known Bibel-lexicon.

Whether the above are related to each other, or to those of the name in America, we have not been able to ascertain.

As there has been and still is some variation in the spelling of the name, it may be well to state that in the oldest records of the family it appears as "Schenckel;" but other forms, such as "Schenkel," "Shenkel," "Shenkle," and "Shinkle," came subsequently into use. "Shinkle" having obtained the widest currency among the descendants of Philipp Carl Schenckel, that form of the name is herein adopted for the sake of uniformity.

By a simple system of registering names—a figure in parenthesis denoting the number assigned to the family of the next succeeding generation—lines of descent may be traced backwards or forwards with equal facility.

There will be found in the appendices brief genealogies of other Shinkles, possibly descended from the Heinrich and Philip who came to America in the same vessel with Philipp Carl, and who may therefore be presumed to have been his brothers.

Among the authorities used in the preparation of the genealogy, aside from the private records so kindly placed at our disposal, special mention should be made of the Second Series of "Pennsylvania Archives;" Rupp's "Pennsylvania Immigrants;" "Early Settlers of Sangamon County, Illinois;" and the County Histories of Brown County, Ohio; Clermont County, Ohio; Madison County, Indiana; and Marion County, Indiana.

Errors are, to a certain extent, unavoidable in a work containing so many names. Great care has been taken to procure the records of the early generations from original and authentic sources; and we trust that the success which has attended our efforts to restore the early history of the family will compensate for any errors that may have crept into the later, which in many instances has been recorded as received, without special verification. Corrections and additional information are solicited from all, to be sent to Louisa J. Abbott, Estelline, South Dakota.

THE SHINKLE GENEALOGY.

FAMILY I.

PHILIPP CARL SCHENCKEL (2), son of Nicolas, and grandson of Bartholomew Schenckel, was a native of Edenkoben, in the Rhenish Palatinate, Bavaria. He was born June 8, 1717, and was married June 29 (probably 1745 or 1746), to Maria Elisabetha Zimpel, daughter of Valentine Zimpel (or Zimbel). She was born Feb. 28, 1717, at Edenkoben, and was baptized the same day, by George Wolfgang Schaefer, school-teacher in the Reformed Church, her godfather and godmother being (.) and his wife Maria Elisabetha. Philipp Carl Schenckel and family, together with Philip and Heinrich Schenckel, doubtless his brothers, emigrated to America in 1752, taking passage at Rotterdam in the "Snow Ketty," commanded by Theophilus Barnes, touching at Portsmouth, England, and landing at Philadelphia, where, in company with his fellow passengers, Carl, as he was commonly called,* took the prescribed oath of allegiance, Oct. 16, 1752. He then settled in Heidelberg Township, Lancaster co., Pa.† When the Revolution came on, he disregarded his original vow, transferring his allegiance to the State of

* His eldest son writes in the family Bible, "Mein Vater hat geheissen Carl" (My father was named Carl). The name was signed "Philipp Carl" to the oath of allegiance in 1752; but "Carl" only in 1778.

† Owing to the shifting of county lines, Heidelberg is now the southeastern township of Lebanon co.

Pennsylvania, June 22, 1778. His family Bible (Luther's version, with all Luther's notes and comments, printed at Basel, 1753), is now owned by his great-grandson, Philip J. Shinkle (fam. 12). With it has been preserved the oldest known extant document in the history of the family—the baptismal certificate of his wife, written in a fine German hand, with ornamental title. Being faded too much to admit of successful fac-simile reproduction, only the text, with translation, can be given.

Ein Tauf-Zettel.

So wahr die Tauf' von Sünden rein,
 Durch Christi Blut thut waschen sein,
 Wie die christlich' Kirch' verordnet hat,
 Ein Gödel und Vater nebst dem Wasserbad,
 Also zum Zeichen meiner Lieb
 Ich dann ihm dies klein Waschung und Zeichen gieb',
 Und wünsch', dass es in Christo sei
 Nunmehr von allen Sünden frei;
 Und seine liebe Eltern möchten erleben
 Bei ihm Freud, Lieb, im Heil des Glaubens tragen, Damit es nach dieser vergänglichen Zeit
 Möcht' eine Bürgerin sein in der Ewigkeit.
 Es versiegle dieses allermeist
 Gott, Vater, Sohn und Heiliger Geist.

A Baptismal Certificate.

As baptism does truly wash clean
 From sins through Christ's blood;
 As the Christian Church has ordered
 A godmother and father besides the water-bath;
 As a sign therefore of my love,
 Do I give her this little washing and token,
 And hope that in Christ she may be
 Evermore from all sins free;
 And that her dear parents may experience
 In her joy and love, and rear her in the blessedness of faith,
 That after this transitory time,
 She may be a dweller in eternity.
 May God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 Grant this above all.

Done at Edenkoben, February 28, 1717.

George Wolfsgang Schaefer, school teacher in the Reformed Church. (.) godfather and (his) wife Maria Elisabetha her godmother, who have this day held her for holy baptism.

A baptismal certificate, together with the christening money, for Maria Elisabetha Zimpel, female.

CHRISTIAN* (5), b. Heidelberg tp., Lancaster co., Pa., July 10, 1756. Private in the Heidelberg Company, 1775, Capt. Geo. Hudson. Took the oath of allegiance to the State of Pennsylvania in Heidelberg tp., June 22, 1778. Farmer; m. (1) Maria Magdalena ———. Removed to Ohio, crossing the Alleghenies in wagons to Pittsburg, thence by flatboat, landing at Limestone (now Maysville, Ky.), where he left his family to seek a location. On June 15, 1805, he purchased of R. C. Jacobs, 1,000 acres† on Bullsken Creek for $2,000. His ownership of this tract gave the name of Shinkle's Ridge to the section of country lying north of Higginsport. Land was donated by him for a Church, cemetery and school-house, and he drew most of the material for the old stone church, 44 x 64 feet in size, erected in 1821, which has since given place to a more modern structure. His wife d. in 1814, and he m. (2) Oct. 2, 1817, Mrs. Elizabeth Stayton. He d. in 1833.

MARGRETA (6), b. Nov. 5, 1759; m. Stephen Bolender, a farmer, blacksmith, and Dunkard minister. He was b. Oct. 9, 1756; bought 60 acres in Berks co., Pa.; emigrated to Ohio in 1800; bought 200 acres at Boude's Ferry, below Higginsport, and added the ferry to his business. "Peggy," as his wife was familiarly called, learned the blacksmith's art

* So in his father's Bible; but in the baptismal certificate of his daughter Margaret, it is written, "Johan Christian."

JOHN LIENENGER (15), b. Berks co., Pa., Feb., 1783; m. in Brown co., O., Nov. 7, 1805, Maria Magdalena Shinkle (fam. 5). He made annual trips to New Orleans on a flatboat with farm produce; moved with other emigrants to what is now Clear Lake tp., Sangamon co., Ill., arriving Dec., 1826. He d. Aug., 1827, and she d. 1878.

CHRISTIAN B. (16), b. Apr. 18, 1785, and baptized June 18, 1785, at the Swamp Church, in Heidelberg tp., Lancaster co., Pa., his godfather and godmother being his uncle Christian and his wife Magdalena; farmer; Higginsport, O.; m. (1), Catharine Shinkle (fam. 5). She helped him cut wood and split rails, and cut grain with a sickle. She d. about 1816. He was m. (2), May 17, 1817, by John Ross, J. P., to Susannah Reed; moved to Feesburg, about 1850 or 1855, buying a farm from his brother Henry. He d. Jan. 21, 1873. Susannah d. Oct. 1, 1860. Christian's birth and baptismal record, the earliest in date of a number of similar certificates still extant, each in like manner bordered with quaint pictures by a school teacher of the period, is now the property of Mrs. Lucinda J. Mullen, who has kindly permitted it to be transcribed:—

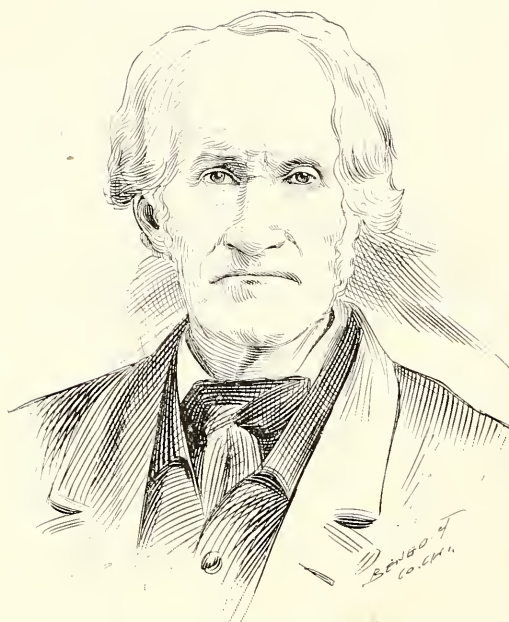

“Diesen beiden Ehgatten, als Johan Philipp Schenckel und seiner ehlichen Hausfrau Barbara, eine geborne Walderin, ist ein Sönlein zur Welt geboren in Jahr unsers Herrn Jesu 1785 den 18ten Tag Aprill um 12 Uhr in der Nacht im Zeichen dem Lön.

Gott gebe Gnad, Kraft und Stärke, dass dieser Christian in der Furcht zum Lob und Preis des Herrn möge aufwachsen und zunehmen in grosser Begierde der vernünftigen lautern Milch, das ursprüngliche Heil der Seelen zu suchen, nach abgelegtem Glaubens-bekänntniß und Erkänntniß der Sünde durch wahre Reu und Buse, vor der Christlichen Gemeinde, zur geistlichen Wiedergeburt der Heiligen Tauf befördert, und von Johannes Wahlschmidt, Prediger und Diener des Worts, nach Christi Befehl, Mathäi 28, v. 19, getauft, und in den Gnad-Bund Gottes einverleibet worden. Dieser Christian in der Schwam Kirche ist, als ein Glied in die Gemeinschaft der Heiligen, durch das Bad der Wiedergeburt und Erneuerung des Heiligen Geistes, wie St. Paulus lehret, Titum 3, v. 5, 6, 7. Christian ist auf- und angenommen worden, den 18ten Tag Juni 1785, und durch den wahren Glauben an unsern Erlöser Jesu Christo, des so theuer erworbenen Verdienstes, der himmlischen Freuden, und der ewigen Seligkeit Erben eingesetzt. Mithin vergiss nicht, wie der Apostel Paulus, Collosser 1. v. 12, 14, die Pflicht beschreibt. Saget Dank dem Vater der uns tüchtig gemacht hat, zum Erbtheil der Heiligen im Licht, u. s. w.

Taufzeugen Christian Schenckel und seine Hausfrau Magdalena. Dieser Christian ist geboren und getauft in America, im Staat Pennsylvania, in Lancaster County, in Heidelberg Taunship.

Wann wir kaum geboren werden;
 Ist vom ersten Lebenstritt
 Bis ins kühle Grab der Erden,
 Nur ein kurz gemessener Schritt.
 Ach mit jedem Augenblick
 Gehet unsre Kraft zurück,
 Und wir sind mit jedem Jahre
 Allzu reiff zur Todtenbahre;
 Und wer weiss in welcher Stunde
 Uns die letzte Stimme weckt?
 Denn Gott hat's mit seinem Munde
 Keinem Menschen noch entdeckt.

Da die Sicherheit hingegen
Ewig's Sterben kann erregen."

"To this wedded couple, Johan Philipp Schenckel and his wife Barbara (born a Walderin), was born a little son in the year of our Lord Jesus, 1785, the 18th day of April, about 12 o'clock in the night, in the sign of the Lion.

God give grace, power, and strength, that this Christian may grow up in fear to the praise and glory of the Lord, and increase in greater desire of rational pure milk, to seek first the salvation of souls, after the confession of faith and confession of sins, through true repentance and penitence made before the Christian congregation.

This Christian has been promoted to the spiritual regeneration of holy baptism, and baptized by Johannes Wahlschmidt, minister and servant of the Word, according to the commandment of Christ contained in God's covenant of grace, Matt. 28: 19; in the Swamp Church, as a member in the communion of the saints, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, as St. Paul teaches, Titus 3: 5, 6, 7.

Christian was received and accepted the 18th day of June, 1785, and made heir, through the true belief toward our Savior Jesus Christ, of the merit so dearly won, of heavenly joys, and of eternal salvation. Forget not therefore the duty described by the Apostle Paul, Colossians 1: 12, 14. He says, "Give thanks unto the Father who hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light," etc.

This Christian was born and baptized in America, in the State of Pennsylvania, in Lancaster County, in Heidelberg Township; his godfather and godmother being Christian Schenckel and his wife Magdalena.

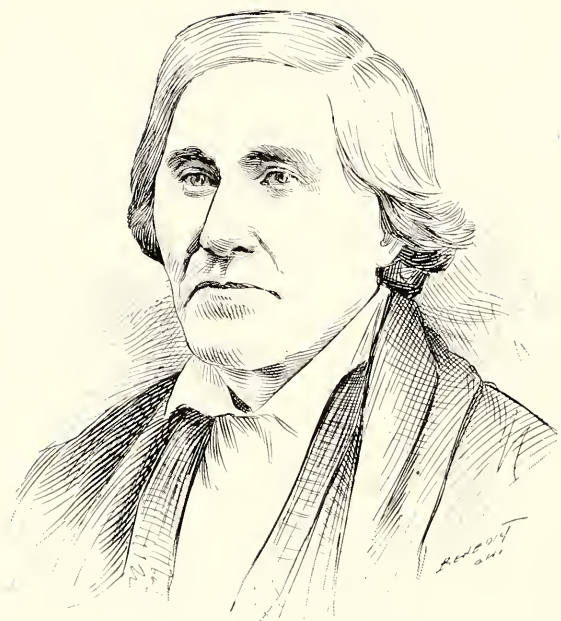

From the time of our birth,
 And our first steps in life,
 To the cold grave of the earth
 Is but a brief measured span.
 Yea, every moment
 How our strength fails us!
 And we are with every year,
 All too ripe for death's bier.
 And who knows what hour
 The last voice shall wake us?
 For God has to no man
 The time revealed.
 Whoso keeps his house in order,
 Departs this life with joy;
 Having the certain assurance
 That the dead shall arise."

Shinkle built the "Champion" line of steamers, the "Magnolia," and other vessels for the trade. He sold out the river business in 1865, turning his attention to real estate. Early in the war he was Colonel of the 41st Regt. Ky. Vols., which he was instrumental in organizing. He was the prime mover in the construction of the Cincinnati and Covington Suspension Bridge, then the largest of the kind in the world (completed in 1867, at a cost of $1,800,000), and was president of the Bridge Company until his death. He was president of the Covington Gas Light Works; president of the First National Bank of Covington, of which he was one of the founders; was appointed trustee by the City of Covington, and was twice president of the City Council. Rising by his unaided exertions from poverty to wealth, honorable in every relation of life, his benevolence found constant expression in wise and liberal benefactions. He and his wife united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1864. For twenty-seven years he was the superintendent of the Sunday-school, providing it with the best literature at his own expense. He supplied their choice of either Scribner's, the Century,

GEORG MARTIN SCHENCKEL, of Berks co., Pa., was naturalized between Jan. 9, 1729 and 1730. (Earliest known record of the name in America.)

JOHANNES SCHENKEL (autograph spelling), a Palatine, was imported in the ship Pennsylvania Merchant, John Stedman, master, from Rotterdam; qualified Sept. 11, 1731.

JACOB SCHENCKEL and CLEOVEA SCHENCKEL (clerk's spelling), aged 27 and 30 respectively, were imported in the ship Mercury, William Wilson, master, from Rotterdam, the vessel bringing Palatines and Switzers. Jacob qualified May 29, 1735.

HANS GEORG SCHENCKEL (autograph spelling), was imported in the ship Bennet Gally, John Wadham, master, from Rotterdam, last from Portsmouth; qualified Aug. 13, 1750.

FRIEDRICH SCHENCKEL (autograph spelling), was imported in the ship Sandwich, Captain Hazlewood, from Rotterdam, last from Cowes; qualified Nov. 30, 1750.

PHILIP CARL SCHENCKEL, HEINRICH SCHENCKEL, and PHILIPP SCHENCKEL (autograph spelling), were imported in the Snow Ketty, Theophilus Barnes, commander, from Rotterdam, last from Portsmouth, Eng.; qualified Oct. 16, 1752. These were our ancestor and his companions, doubtless his brothers.

JOHANN PHILIP SCHENCKEL (autograph spelling), was imported in the ship Minerva, Thomas Arnott, captain, from Rotterdam, last from Cowes; qualified Sept. 17, 1771.

LUDWIG SCHENCKEL (autograph spelling), was imported in the ship Union, Andrew Bryson, master, from Rotterdam, last from Portsmouth; qualified Sept. 27, 1773.

JACOB SCHINKEL, a German, was imported in the ship Dorothea, Severus Dalsted, master, from Rotterdam; qualified Oct. 14, 1787.

JOHAN BOLANDER (clerk's spelling), was imported in the Snow Thane of Fife, William Weems, master, from Rotterdam, last from Aberdeen, Scotland; qualified Nov. 7, 1741. In the original list of the ship's passengers (whether autographs or written by clerk, not stated), the name is written POLANDER.

PHILIP HENRICH BOHLENDER (autograph spelling), was imported in the ship Minerva, Captain Thomas Arnott, from Rotterdam, last from Portsmouth; qualified Oct. 13, 1769.

[The above include all the Shinkle and Bolender arrivals in America which a diligent search of the Pennsylvania Archives disclosed.]

MARIA SCHINCKEL and Jacob Graef, Jr., were married Sept. 21, 1774, at St. Michael's and Zion Lutheran Church, Philadelphia. Marriage license dated Sept. 19, 1774.

FRIEDRICH SCHINCKEL and Salome Hall were married Dec. 3, 1795, at the German Reformed Church, Philadelphia.

MARY SHINGLE and John Canan were married Mar. 2, 1805, at Christ Church, Philadelphia.

SARAH SHINGLE and James Molineaux were married Apr. 21, 1794, at Christ Church, Philadelphia.

FREDERICK SHINKLE and Harriet Ottinger were married June 7, 1802, at Christ Church, Philadelphia.

FRED SHINGLE, of Lancaster co., was naturalized Sept. 10, 1761, having taken the sacrament Aug. 23, 1761.

FREDERICK SHENKELL, of Philadelphia co., was naturalized Sept., 1764, the sacrament being taken by him Sept. 23, 1764.

HENRY SCHENCKELL, of Coventry Township, Chester co., was naturalized in 1767. This is probably Heinrich Schenckel, companion and brother of Philipp Carl Schenckel, and the ancestor of family in Appendix B.

PHILIP JACOB SHENKLE took the oath of allegiance to the State of Pennsylvania in Cocalico Township, Lancaster co., Pa., before Adam Nees, J. P. (From certified list dated Nov. 3, 1778.) This may be the eldest son of Philipp Carl Schenckel.

FRITZ SHINGLE was appointed corporal, Sept. 14, 1778, in Capt. John Linton's Company, of the Seventh Class, Philadelphia Militia, in the service of the United States, Col. William Bradford's Battalion.

JACOB SHINKEL, private in Capt. Henry Meyer's Company, called the State Guards, belonging to the First Regt. Penn. Volunteers; commencement of service Sept. 17, 1814.

JOHN SHINKLE, private in Capt. John Hall's Company, 65th Regt. (On pay roll Oct. 17, 1814.)

JOHN SHINKLE, private in Capt. Joseph Starne's Company, 2d Brigade, First Div., Penn. Militia. (War of 1812.)

JACOB SHINKLE, a grocer, was in business about 1826 and 1827, at Grand and Crosby Streets, New York City, and in 1828, at No. 7 Sullivan Street. He is supposed to have died in that year. His widow, Eliza, was living at 25 Oak Street in 1831.

JACOB SCHENKALL and Geretie Van Valkenburgh; marriage license issued in New York, May 27, 1771.

JOHANNIS SCHINCKEL and Jane Van Valkenburgh; marriage license issued in New York, Feb. 8, 1776.

WILHELM SCHENKEL, son of Wilhelm Schenkel of Thalichtenberg, Prussia, came to America with his wife Margaret in 1846, locating at Pittsburg, where one of their two sons still resides. The other, John N. Schenkel, lives at Syracuse, Mo.

APPENDIX D.

[A letter from a cousin beyond the sea. The reunion of the German and American branches of the family has been our fondest dream. May the thread of communication, now happily restored, never again be entirely severed!]

EDENKOBEN, 18th March, 1897.

Sir,—Thank you very much for the views and photos you sent us with your last letter, which I received on the 15th this month. I am sorry not to have been able to fulfill your wish at once, since, as you can imagine, I have a great many duties, being the Head Mistress of the High School here. I have made more inquiries about our ancestors, and found that we must indeed be your relations, for an aunt of mine, and my mother also, remember that an aunt of hers (a sister of my great grandfather) often talked about her uncle Philipp Carl who went to America long ago. The house I send you the photo of, is my grandfather's house, and he inherited it from his father. In fact, it went down from father to son since his great grandfather; so it may be the house your ancestors came from. This house was rebuilt about 1820. I now give you an account of our ancestors as far as we can make it out.

This uncle Philipp Carl, who, as I told you before, went to America, was the brother of Johann Wilhelm Schenkel. The son of this latter was Johann Wilhelm Schenkel (1770-1843). He had two sisters, Katrina Schenkel (— 1865), the lady who remembered her uncle Philipp Carl in America; Johann Nikolaus (— 1850); Margaretha (— 1842).

The son of Johann Wilhelm Schenkel (1770–1843) was Johann Wilhelm Schenkel, my grandfather (1819–1887). They were both the owners of a large complexus of vineyards, and were very well off. My grandfather had a large family of eleven children, of which but six lived to grow up. At present there are only four living.

One son, Heinrich Schenkel, 1848. He has two sons, Heinrich and Wilhelm Schenkel.

The second son, Georg Schenkel, married Barbara Ven. He lived from 1852–1879. His only daughter is Sibilla Schenkel, 1877.

The third son, Wilhelm Schenkel (1842–1876), had no children.

His eldest daughter, Elisabetha Acker, 1839, is a widow and has two daughters, Elisabetha and Philippine Acker.

His second daughter, Katharina Feig, my mother, is married to the spediteur (railroad agent), Simon Feig, and has three children: Margaretha Hofbauer, Philippine Feig, and Wilhelm Feig.

His third daughter, Philippine Treber, is the widow of Nikolaus Treber, and has four children: Elisabetha, Katharina, Friedrich, and Nikolaus Treber.

They all live here at Edenkoben, except our uncle, Heinrich, who lives in America. I send you many family portraits. I am sorry not to be able to send you any old ones. Photography was not much known here in those old times, and we have none except those I send you. Our family takes the greatest interest in this family chronik, and would like to have one if you could manage it, that I might be able to translate it for them.

I send you also an album with views of Eidenkoben and surroundings, that you might be able to see what place it is your relations live in. At the time your ancestors emigrated, Eidenkoben was a very poor-looking little town, but in these times it is getting larger and prettier every year almost. It is a very pretty landscape you see from the mounts on the foot of which we live. Of course not so wild and romantic as the Black Mounts [Black Hills] you sent us, but this valley of the Rhine is the most fertile, and the sweetest looking little country you can imagine. All the slopes of the hills are covered with vineyards, and the woods you see are almost all real chestnut woods. The climate is mild, and there ripen peaches, apricots, and all sorts of fruit.

Now, hoping that the family record will be of use to you, and that the photos will give you pleasure, I send to you the kind regards of the family Schenkel.

Yours sincerely,

PHILIPPINE FEIG.
